How do I pick my wine?

You will be charged per bottle consumed on the day of your event. Bonterra can not permit guests to bring in their own wine. Wine tastings can be arranged with your Function Coordinator for upto a maximum of two people.

When does the bar close?

For evening functions the bar closes at 1am.

Can we order our wedding cake through you?

Our Executive Pastry Chef can create a beautiful custom wedding cake for your big day at an additional cost for more information ask our Function Coordinator.

How are menus created for my event?

All menus for private events are pre-set. Menu selections for our three-course plated menu must be communicated to your Event Manager at least 14 days before your event. Family-style and grandioso menus are personalized menus and are chef's choice. The only outside food permitted on site is a celebratory cake/cupcakes from a licensed bakery. We are not able to offer food tastings for any of our menus.

Do you recommend any vendors?

We are happy to provide vendor referrals, please speak with your Event Manager.

When can I book my event?

We only book events 12 months in advance, weddings require a full restaurant buyout or we can host small intimate weddings in our wine room. Weddings can not be held on our main floor only (this is to ensure guests experience for all of our guests)

When do I put down my deposit and fulfill payments?

To formally secure an event date/time a 10% deposit of your required minimum spend is required, following completion of your event final payment is required on the day of or within 24 hours.
